

Scope Plan

What the Client needs.

- A simple website
- Information about the new restaraunt
- Menu from the restaurant
- Picutres of their foods
- Link the website with their social media channels

What they really need.

- A mobile first responsive website
- An easy information website

What they don't know they need.

- Book a table section
- Delivery section

Scenarios

Scenario

User want to know more about the restaurant

Requirements

User need to be able to access all the information related the owner of the restaurant and any awards that this restaurant have received.

Scenario

User want to book a table in order to avoid any queue

Requirements

A clear straightforward section to book a table need to be available.